Old Fox Refuses to Talk Concerning Yankees' Suit

By GEORGE L. MORELAND.

"Absolutely nothing to say," was the reply by President Griffith when asked concerning the suit brought by the New York American League team against President Johnson and the five clubs supporting him against insurgents. "It is deplorable and will do the game a lot of harm, and will not settle this trouble."

He did vouch the information that in his opinion the New York courts would grant any request of the Yank owners. "You know any fork courts would grant any request of the Yank owners. "You know any one can enter a suit and get satisfaction, but until the other side has an opportunity to answer the questions that will be put up to them, they are not guilty."

Ruppert Trouble Maker.

"I want to see this trouble fixed up and the sooner the better it will be for everybody. I look for a definite settlement next week when all the members are present at the league meeting. That is the place to thrash out your troubles. It is not the business of outsiders to know, all the family troubles. Let us keep them to ourselves, as we have always done until Col. Ruppert got into the game; then trouble began. By the end of next week I look for the two factions to have all their differences settled and go along as though nothing had happened."

Club to Leave 27th.

All arrangements were completed yesterday with the Atlantic Coast Line to take the Washington players South to the training camp. The boys who will leave from this city will depart Friday, the 2th, at 2:15, arriving at Tampa Saturday at 11 p. m. This will give the members of the club all day Sunday to get settled in their new quarters, which will be the Tampa Bay Hotel.

It is likely that about twenty-two players will leave here on the 27th, while the others will leave from their homes and go direct to camp. Many of them live in the West or South, so that it would be a useless trip to come to Washington and start right back over the same trip.

In the first game the Manus Trainers got going after the first period and were never in danger as the Business tribe lacked team? play and showed the handicap losing three regulars. Although the Blacksmith's won in a handy man-ner they did not look like the same club that romped through the first series with three victories, as there was no dash in their team play, while Hutchinson and Gosnell were slightly off color at shooting from the floor.
